

* Previous Positions: Dec. 2014 – December 2019, Partner at QuirogaBartlett & CÍA, Estudio De Abogados, Monterrey, Mexico; 2006-2014 International Commercial Law Practice in Mexico, first as a Paralegal, later as an Associate Jr. at Martínez Arrieta Abogados, Monterrey, Nuevo León, México, and from 1998 – present, also Special Classes and Translations in Fidelity National Title Group (translations of entire case files for supervising USA attorneys), Cervecería Cuauhtémoc Moctezuma, FEMSA Empaques, Grafo Regia, FEMSA Comercio, Fábricas Monterrey, Teleperformance, Vitro Crisa, Grupo Senda, Instituto de Especialización para Ejecutivos, PYOSA, Strasburger & Price LLP; Kelly Drye & Warren LLP, and many others. Before 1998, Chief Prosecutor, 1997-1998, Colorado River Indian Tribes; Chief Judge, 1993-1997, Colorado River Indian Tribes and Quechan Indian Tribes; Criminal Defense Attorney, 1993-1997, over 100 felony trials, including successful defense of double-homicide, capital murder case; 1991 – 1993, Chief Deputy County Attorney, civil and criminal, including successful prosecution of capital murder case, La Paz County, Arizona; 1990 – 1991, Associate and Acting Attorney General, Colorado River Indian Tribes; Law Clerk, 1986-1990, at the following: Jeffry Fritz P.C., Yuma, Arizona; Martin Galbut and Associates, Phoenix, and at Bilby & Shoenhair (later Snell & Wilmer), Tucson. Process Server, Michael Fleming Process Service, Phoenix, Arizona and serving State or Tribal court process on and off local reservations, 1982-1986.